A Good Suggestion.

Said a lady to the News reporter yesterday: Why don't you suggest to the Federation of Clubs, which is composed of the daughters of our merchants that they have it in their power to do a great deal towards the advancement of the business interests of Paris. It is a well known fact that the ladies are in the habit of doing a large amount of shopping in Lexington and Cincinnati, and it is also a fact that a great deal of the stuff they purchase in those places could be bought just as cheap at home. In a great measure this is due to a force of habit. What I suggest is for the matter to be brought up at the meeting of the various clubs and for the ladies to pledge themselves to not purchase anything away from home which can be got here at the same price. If the ladies would do this it would be a means of keeping a great deal of money in circulation here at home which now goes away.

The News thinks this a wise suggestion, and would be pleased to hear of the federation of clubs adopting it. It is discouraging to our merchants to see our citizens, every time there is a reduced rate on the railroad to Cincinnati or Lexington, taking advantage of it to purchase their dry goods, clothing, groceries, etc. There might be some excuse for it if these cities were great saving in doing so. But it has been proven time and again that the same goods can be bought in the same quantity just as cheap at home, and sometimes cheaper.

GEN. CORBIN is engaged to be married, and it is refreshing to know that there will soon be somebody in Washington whom he won't lose.

The Knights of the Golden Horseshoe, a progressive and up-to-date social and benevolent organization, has gained a strong foothold in Lexington. Paris has every other fraternal organization known, and we may reasonably presume that she will have the Golden Horseshoes in the near future.

A Tricky Crowd.

For "ways" that are dark and tricky that are vain" the Republican party can give Bret Harte's Chinaman cards and spades. Cee sionally throughout the State, you will hear of a life-long Republican, who, having become disgusted with the principles of the party, has decided in the future that he will be a Democrat. He goes into a local election, and votes (or rather trusts) for the Democratic nominee. A great flourish of trumpets is made, and the story is sent broadcast that So-and-So is now a Democrat. In a little while Mr. So-and-So thinks he possesses the necessary brains to run a newspaper, and starts one, duly heralding it as a Democratic sheet. The Republican papers throughout the State, being on to the game, give it wide publicity, that Mr. So-and-So has started a paper "and the only thing objectionable about it is its politics". Mr. So-and-So runs the paper for a short while as a genuine Democratic organ. There is nothing too dirty for him to say about the Republican party, for of course he has good material to work on in that respect. In a short time, after he has convinced a few of the incredulous and unthinking that he is a Democrat he begins his dirty work. It usually starts with criticisms of some local politicians, but eventually goes into a severe arraignment of "his" party. Then the rest of the Republican press throughout the State get in their work. Mr. So-and-So's articles are widely copied. They are duly credited and the announcement is always made that Mr. So-and-So is a Democrat.

Of course, "little children," this is not honest, nor upright, nor straightforward, but to those who have the idea that the end justifies the means, anything which will accomplish their purpose and keep them outside the clutches of the law, is legitimate.

JAS. M. HUTSELL, formerly of Bourbon, writes from Greenville, Miss., that he has just recovered from a case of smallpox, and is out on a fishing tour recuperating. He will not come to Kentucky this summer.

STORIES OF THE STAGE.

Coming Attractions, Gossip in the Lobby and Boxes

WALKER WHITESIDE.

For several years Mr. Walker Whiteside has devoted himself almost entirely to the production of Shakespearean and other classic plays. His several New York City engagements were given over to the magnificent scenic productions of the Bard's great tragedies. The "Hamlet" production, it will be recalled, was a splendid one, gorgeous and complete in every detail. Last season Mr. Whiteside made a notable presentation of Stanley Weyman's "Man in Black," and this season he will be seen in what is said to be one of the strongest romantic plays written. The title of the new play is "Heart and Sword," a translation from the German. The play is neither tragic nor romantic in tone. It is a pure love story, modern in treatment and containing much comedy of the higher order. The company in support of Mr. Whiteside is said to be an excellent one, including Miss Lella Wolstan.

Mr. Whiteside's engagement at the Opera House on May 7th, will be one of the events of the season.

"THE LOST RIB."

Rev. Ward Russell, the gifted orator and lecturer, will deliver his famous lecture, "The Lost Rib," at the Opera House on Friday, May 2d. Few men can amuse you while they teach you and teach you while they amuse you as does this wit and orator. He has a grace and humor that is peculiarly his own and his lecture last evening he was in his happiest mood and by his pathos, witty sayings and amusing stories now moved to tears, now wrapt in thought and now convulsed with laughter his audience.

Big Time in Georgetown.

About forty members of the A. O. U. W. Lodge of this city went to Georgetown on Wednesday night to participate in the initiation of thirty four new members into the lodge in that city. They returned the next morning, and since then have been telling of the royal treatment they received at the hands of the Georgetown brethren. After the conferring of the degrees, which was done by the Paris lodge, they having taken their paraphernalia along, the visitors were taken to the Wellington Hotel, where they partook of a banquet which the boys say surpassed anything in their recollection. As an inducement to appetite which, by the way, was not needed, the A. O. U. W. orchestra of the Georgetown lodge furnished some excellent music. There were over three hundred sat down to supper, and the feast of reason and flow of soul was continued until an early hour in the morning. There were delegates in attendance from five lodges in Louisville, Elkhorn Lodge at Frankfort and the Lodge at Nicholasville.

A Real Novelty.

A novelty of any description is thoroughly appreciated, but more especially so in the amusement line, of which there are few. The one that enjoys the distinction of possessing really more novelty and interesting features than any other on earth is Prof. C. W. Farnum's Dog and Pony Show, which comes to this city to-day for two performances.

4th dam, by Pilot, Jr., sire of dam of Mand S, 2:08 3-4, Jay Eye See 2:10.

WIGGINS is a deep, rich-colored bay horse of perfect conformation and possesses every trait and quality that go to make up an ideal stallion. As a 3-year-old he started in six races and won five straight without losing a heat and could have taken a mark of 2:15 or better. He is a horse of magnificent style and appearance and has proven himself true to his royal pedigree in every respect. He is a young horse in the stud and thus far has had limited opportunities, but his colts show remarkable speed with pure gait and level head. According to his worth and attainments, he stands to-day at a lower fee than any stallion in Kentucky. Send your best mare to him now if you want a trotter and a fortune.
